

Healthcare Environments

Clinical Breast Care Project Comprehensive Breast Center WRAMC Washington, DC The Henry M. Jackson Foundation

- Renovation of former patient ward and offices inside Walter Reed Army Hospital to create center for breast cancer care and research.
- Patient lounge / Education facility.
- Examination suite with procedure room.
- Pathology lab with cryogenic storage.
- Conference Center with broadband video teleconferencing capability for collaborative research program.

- 6000 sf multi-phased renovation allowed local hospital functions to continue uninterrupted during construction.
- Upgrades and integration of hospital infrastructure systems will facilitate planned expansion and allow for future hospital growth.